

I in no way want it possible for telemarketors to be able to start calling people on the no call list for any period of time. I signed up for the list because telemarketors were driving us crazy and I don't feel anyone has the right to bother us if we don't want to be bothered.